Important Note

From October 2011, DASL provides two advice services:

Lambeth Resolve is a consortium of charities providing information, advice, advocacy and community support services for older people (55+) and adults with physical and sensory impairments, learning disabilities or long-term illnesses. It does not cover people with mental health problems of working age. DASL provides advice casework for the consortium. To refer people to this service contact the Lambeth Resolve Enquiry Line on 020 7095 5720 or email ask@lambethresolve.org.uk
 There is more information at www.lambethresolve.org.uk

DASL Specialist Advice Service (Mental Health) can help people with mental health problems of working age with welfare benefits, housing issues, some areas of debt and community care. Use this form to refer people to this service.
